

A STORY TO TELL

In the Brandon School District, we understand the needs and interests of all students are different. Every student is writing his or her own story, and we appreciate the important role schools play in the process. Along the way, we want to maximize the potential in every student no matter where the plot may lead!