

WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

KEEPING UP WITH BRANDON ALUMNI

TYLER COLE

It wasn't so hard to find Brandon graduate Tyler Cole for this issue of the Brandon Beat. It was hard to keep up with him!

After graduating from Brandon in 2006, Tyler Cole has traveled the world, graduated with High Honors from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Science in Microbiology/Bacteriology in 2009, and is now getting ready to graduate from the Stanford School of Medicine in May. We sat down with him to see what he has planned next.

What has driven you into neurosurgery?

It was a combination of things. I started medical school without a certain path I was planning on taking. I actually thought I was going to do internal medicine, but when that rotation came around I found I didn't enjoy it much. Right after my internal medicine rotation, though, I had my surgery rotation. The beginning of it was fairly difficult, but after you figure out the routine it becomes a lot of fun. The pace, the intricacy of